

WE³

ONE IS NOT BORN A WOMAN, ONE BECOMES ONE.

- SIMONE DE BEAUVOIR

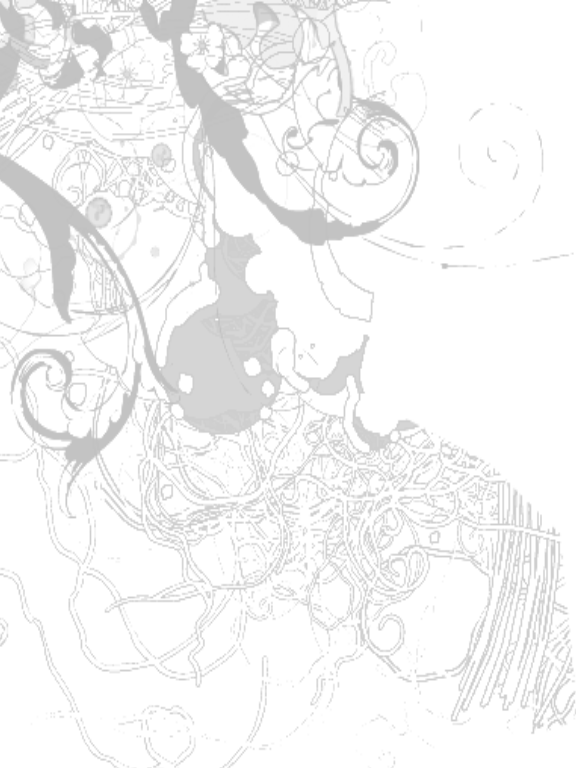

The two or three years directly following the end of the second world war in Paris was one of the most creative and wild eras of the twentieth century.

The transient population that flowed in and out of St. Germaine des Pres, a Parisian neighbourhood, spawned the existentialist movement. These late night poetic ramblings infused with Jazz, interracial relationships and sexual ambiguity were made famous by the likes of Miles Davis, Juliette Greco, Greta Garbo, Simone de Beauvoir and Jean Paul Sartre.

Revolutionary, irreverent and intellectual.
The beatnik is born.

We three at We3 Designs pay tribute to this time and the birth of the modern woman – one of substance and passion, with a free spirit and full heart.
